

LIBRARY

The College has a typical library with a decent gathering of books on fluctuated subjects and magazines. Individuals from the library are admonished to make the best utilization of the library.

1. The library will stay open from 9.00 a.m. to 4.30 p.m. on every single working day
2. It will stay shut on all occasions, Sunday and amid the mid year get-away.
3. Applications for taking books might be made in the endorsed frame and submitted to the custodian before 9.00 a.m. on every single working day. Books will be issued between 12.45 p.m. to 01.20 p.m.
4. Flawless quiet ought to be kept up in the library.
5. B.Ed understudy will be given two library token for each student. Book will be issued against library token. One book for every token will be issued.
6. Book obtained by the understudies might be kept with them for a week and must be returned on the due date entered in the first page of the books.
7. Defaulters will be fined at the rate of Rs.5/ – for every book every day.
8. Book might be returned toward the end of the every session on every working day.
09. Reference books, magazines, diaries and every day news papers ought to be supplanted in their individual spots. They ought not be taken out of the library.
10. Books issued ought to be taken care of deliberately. Nothing ought to be composed in the pages of books and no underlining of sentences ought to be finished.

The Knowledge Resource Centre (Library) has the following facilities:

Number of books - 2231

National Journals – 10

International Journals - 05,

Regional Journals - 03,

Internet access in all computers. These resources are available at all times for their reference. A well- facilitated library with a good number of essential books and materials caters to the needs of the students.

All the library materials are maintained well.

The list of the new arrival of the library books are displayed on the notice board. And, the Library follows an open access system and it has been computerized in High – Technixal manner.

