Introduction:

GRIEVANCE REDRESSAL COMMITTEE

The institution constitutes a grievance redressal committee for every batch as per the IGRC guidelines of the University of Tamilnadu. The cell aims to look after the welfare of the students and makes sure to resolve any grievances received from the students in a fair manner.

The GRC aims to resolve any complaints or other issues faced by students within week of the reporting to the committee.

Apart from the grievance redressal cell. The institution also constitutes anti-ragging committee and anti-sexual committee to keep in check that no such incidents happen with any of the students-teachers or even faculty members.

Other than the committees, the students-teachers are also free to approach their respective mentors to seek required solutions and suggestions for the queries.

There is a complaint box placed in the office area for the staff members and the students-teachers to drop their concern in written.

Institution has guidelines regarding Redressal Mechanism approached by appropriate statutory/regulatory bodies.

Mechanism of GRC:

Step 1. The grievance can be shared either via email or the complaint drop box.

Step 2. Among the committee members the student Representative shall look into the matter first before taking the matter up to any of the committee members of the staff.

Step 3. The grievances are forwarded to the members of the committee.

Step 4. Very Urgent or personal issues are handed over to the Co ordinator and then to the chairperson. if needed.

Step 5. In case of grievances relating to any conduct which may seem like ragging or sexual misconduct, a meeting is held with all the committee members including the chairperson to take the appropriate cell.

Step 6. The stakeholders is informed about the outcome.
